Dorothy Footitt Scholarship

The Dorothy Footitt Scholarship Committee is announcing that scholarships will again be available to graduating seniors of Carroll County High Schools. The purpose of the scholarship is to assist Carroll County youth to further their education.

Applicants may be any graduating high school senior residing in Carroll County attending a state accredited high school. Selection of winners will be based on academic achievement, community activity, and personal recommendations. Application forms are available from high school counselors and may be submitted at any time before March 15, 2010.

The scholarships are available through a fund established in 1968 in honor of Miss Dorothy Footitt who organized the Carroll County Home Bureau and Carroll County 4-H Clubs and served as advisor for many years. The fund has grown over the years by donations from individuals, HCE units and from Miss Footitt. A copy of her autobiography The Memoirs of Dorothy V. Footitt by Dorothy Footitt with Craig Sidor is available at all local public and high school libraries.

Questions concerning the scholarship may be directed to: Carolyn Nelson at 815-493-2683.
