Milledgeville Hotshots 4-H Club is in the Christmas Spirit

By Matt Keppen
 Chadwick Achievers 4-H Club Reporter

The December 16th meeting of the Milledgeville Hotshots was filled with excitement. To start the night, we made Christmas tins. We decorated tin cans festively and filled them with a bag of Chex mix. After making these items, we tied a blanket to thank our former leader, Kay Ferris.

We then held a short meeting with talks by Alex Schuldt and Betty Nicklaus on cooking. We discussed the upcoming fundraiser and handed out the tickets to sell. On March 27, there will be a drive through supper including a pulled pork sandwich, baked potato, green beans, and cherry cobbler. Contact the extension office for tickets.

We then headed across the street to the Brethren Home. We sang numerous Christmas carols and gave the occupants the Christmas tins we had made. Our 4-H warmed the hearts of many people by our actions.
